

PRESS RELEASE

September 4, 2015---The National Advocates organization is pleased to announce that Ms. Linda K. Fisher has been selected for inclusion into its Wills, Trusts and Estates Law specialty, an honor given to only a select group of lawyers as recognition of their superior skills and qualifications in the field. The selection for this exclusive list is limited to only 100 attorneys per state or region who have demonstrated their extraordinary abilities with superior results, a high level of peer respect and client satisfaction.

The National Advocates is a professional organization comprised of premier lawyers from across the country who have demonstrated exceptional qualifications in their area of the law, including Matrimonial and Family Law, Employment Law, Social Security Disability Law, Immigration Law, Bankruptcy Law and Estates, Wills and Trusts. The National Advocates provides accreditation to these distinguished attorneys, and provides essential legal news, information, and education to trial lawyers across the United States.

With the selection of Ms. Fisher by The National Advocates, she has shown that she exemplifies superior qualifications, leadership skills, and case results as a legal professional. The selection process for this elite honor is based on a multi-phase process which includes peer nominations combined with third party research. As The National Advocates is an essential source of networking and information for trial attorneys throughout the nation, the final result of the selection process is a credible and comprehensive list of the lawyers chosen to represent their state.
